

Today was a very good day! At first in the morning Lithuanians accompanied by Icelanders have visited Spanish, Danish and Geography lessons. At the same time some of us joined the group to count the birds in Ósland. Later on we presented the slides about Lithuania and Siauliai. The funniest thing about it was our video based on Icelanders "Jungle drum". Everybody liked it.

At 10:30 we went to the heating utility system. At 12 o'clock we went in to the Egill's farm where we saw little calves and big cows. After that our group drove to the "SMYRLABJARGARVIRKJUN". There we saw how the electricity in Iceland is produced and walked in the mountains. When we came down we were given some drinks and chocolate.

After this all group saw "Bergárdalur". It was

It was a veeeeery good day!
