

We got up early in Sunday morning and had breakfast. After that we packed up and went to the airport. Traveling from Keflavik to Copenhagen and from there to Vilnius airport, we had all the time for sharing experiences, memories and feelings about trip we just had.

Even though we were tired from long journey, we have really enjoyed the memories, which will remain long and even more new friends.

Written by Benas

