

Hello, my name is Lukka and I'm 17 years old, born 13th of June 1994. I live with my mom Elísabet, dad Óðinn, older brother Jóhannes and my dog Embla in a small town, in the south-east of Iceland called Höfn. I've lived here my whole life and I like living here. It's small and comfortable. My parents own a hotel here in Höfn and I work there as a waitress.

I go to the local High school here in Höfn (Framhaldsskólinn í Austur-Skaftafellssýslu). I'm on my third semester and I focus on social science.

I love to travel, I've been to many countries but I would like to see the whole world. In the future I would like to go to some exotic places like Africa and Asia where there is a whole diffirent culture.
